

COUCH WHITE^{LLP}

Environmental & Land Use Attorney

Couch White LLP, a leading business law firm, is seeking a skilled and dedicated Environmental and Land Use Associate or Of Counsel Attorney to join our dynamic team in Albany, New York. Interested candidates must have a robust background in environmental review and land use. This position offers an excellent opportunity for career growth in a supportive and professional environment. Litigation experience is advantageous but not a prerequisite. Essential to the role are exceptional research and writing and verbal communication skills, a collaborative team spirit, and admission to the New York State bar.

We offer full benefit package, including Health/Dental/Vision insurance, 401k, paid time off, parking, etc.

Interested candidates are invited to submit a resume in confidence to the firm administrator, Lindsay Perkins.